COMMUNITY OUTREACH: THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MISSIONS

In partnership with the Rapha House, Aryn Crawford, the Children's Center's Community Outreach Coordinator, traveled to Cincinnati, OH this month for the International Conference on Missions. Aryn lead a workshop on the development of child protection policies and procedures at churches and religious organizations. Churches can be used by perpetrators of child abuse to gain access to children. The leaders and members of churches must adhere to clear policies regarding mandated reporting and supervision in order to protect children and promote safety. In January, the Rapha House, Choices Medical Clinic, and the Children's Center are hosting a conference for local churches on the same topic, and for an extended discussion of the dynamics of child sexual abuse. Stay tuned to Children's Center's Facebook page for more information!

Thanks,
Rapha House!
